

LORDE 2026

Long-Run Dynamics in Economics – OLG Days

April 7–9, 2026 | Lille (France)

We invite to submit full papers to the 5th edition of the Long-Run Dynamics in Economics Workshop.

The workshop will be held at the University of Lille in France, from April 7 to 9, 2026.

Submissions must be uploaded on the website:
<https://lorde2026.sciencesconf.org>

Submissions: December 31, 2025

Decision to authors: February 6, 2026

Topics

The LORDE workshops, which began in 2022, carry on the tradition of the OLG Days established by Philippe Michel.

We invite contributions across a diverse range of topics in macroeconomic dynamics and quantitative theory, including but not limited to:

- Education, human capital, and the labor market
- Fiscal policies and debt sustainability
- Growth and development
- Economic history
- Population economics
- Sustainable development and environmental policies

Organization

There are no fees and the organization will cover the costs related to food and accommodation for two nights. Participants are expected to cover their own travel expenses. PhD students can apply for funding.

We strongly encourage all participants to attend the entire workshop. Furthermore, we actively encourage both junior and senior individuals to participate.
